'Gallop to Callop' The Iain MacFarlane Band

The World Premier of the début solo album from West Highland fiddler and 'Blazin' Fiddles' founding member, Iain MacFarlane. A mix of wild Strathspeys, rip-roaring jigs and reels and beautifully melodious slow airs, and good banter.

"Playing of fabulous sensitivity and genuine heart" The Glasgow Herald.

Iain MacFarlane, fiddle
Ewan Robertson, guitar
Megan Henderson, fiddle

Ingrid Henderson, piano and clàrsach
Dermot Byrne, accordion

"Iain has rightly the reputation for bringing absolute joy to his live appearances." Folkmusic Radio

The new CD is nominated for this year's Trad Music Awards 'CD of the Year'

Fred Morrison Piping concert

Fred Morrison is one of Scotland's great and outstanding pipes and whistle players. The celebrated Gaelic piping tradition of his father's native South Uist forms the bedrock of his intensely expressive, uniquely adventurous style.

His outstanding technical prowess saw him winning many top competition prizes while still at school, and inspired by pioneering acts like the Bothy Band and the Tannahill Weavers. Although his first-love instrument remains the great Highland bagpipes, over the years his mastery has expanded to encompass whistles, Scottish smallpipes, or reelpipes and Irish uilleann pipes.

He was also one of the first Scottish artists to forge dynamic links with his Celtic cousins in Brittany and north-west Spain, adding further to his repertoire of influences and tunes, and has long been renowned as an outstanding composer.

"widely regarded as one of the greatest Scottish pipers alive today."
